INTRODUCTION

This finding aid focuses on the family papers of Mehlhope Herblin (1875-1945) and his wife Ida Belle Tallman Herblin (1879-1944) of Nashville, Tennessee. Spanning the years 1892-1961, although the bulk is largely concentrated between 1924-1945, the papers contain numerous photographs of members of the Herblin and Tallman families. Other items in the collection include clippings, genealogical data, obituaries, programs, and several miscellaneous items. The materials were donated by Harry C. Hoy, Jr., a nephew of Mehlhope Herblin.

After removal of extraneous items, the materials in this collection measures one linear foot. There are no restrictions on the materials. Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the Herblin Family Papers may be made for individual or scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Herblin Family Papers, containing approximately 100 items, span the period 1892-1961, although the bulk is concentrated between 1924-1945. The collection is composed of clippings, correspondence, diaries, genealogical data, obituaries, photographs, programs, and several miscellaneous items.

A major portion of the collection consists of photographs of Herblin and Tallman family members. The photographs have been arranged by size and alphabetically by surname. One non-family photograph is the Nashville Caldwell School Class of 1892.

Genealogical data may be found on not only the Herblin and Tallman families, but also on the Dunlap, Fauver, Jones, and Lane lines. Genealogical charts in the finding aid have been constructed to show relationships.
